Droga Gimmnazjalistko! Drogi Gimmnazjalisto!

Przed przystąpieniem do rozwiązywania testu należy zakodować pracę zgodnie ze wskazaniami Komisji Konkursowej.

Test, który masz przed sobą, zawiera osiem zadań (od A do H). Przeczytaj uważnie polecenia i przykłady do zadań. W zadaniach D, F i G wymagana jest całkowita poprawność ortograficzna. Akceptowane są formy skrócone.

Pamiętaj, żeby pisać czytelnie (długopisem lub piórem), gdyż nieczytelność liter dyskwalifikuje odpowiedź. Możesz pisać drukowanymi literami. Nie używaj korektora. Jeśli jeszcze nie wyłączyłeś/wyłączyłaś telefonu komórkowego, zrób to teraz.

Czas przeznaczony na rozwiązanie testu: 75 minut.

Życzymy Ci satysfakcji z uczestnictwa w konkursie i uzyskania wysokiego wyniku.

GOOD LUCK!

Organizatorzy Konkursu

ZADANIE A

Przeczytaj tekst. Z podanych odpowiedzi wybierz właściwą, zgodną z treścią tekstu. Zakreśl literę A, B lub C. Za każdą poprawną odpowiedź otrzymasz 2 punkty.

Sabrina Kraus worked in Berlin as a graphic designer. She earned good money but sitting at the desk from nine to five was really boring for her. Buying a car or a house like her friends seemed a waste of money. All she wanted was freedom and adventure. Therefore, one day she decided to sell everything she owned and leave the job in order to travel the world.

November 20th, 2008 was the first day of her new life. On that day she boarded the plane with a one-way ticket to Hong Kong. She took some clothes, travel medicine and a box of homemade cookies made by her grandma. First she spent half a year in Asia, then crossed the Pacific Ocean to South America. Finally, she flew to New York and from there she returned to Germany. It was January 2010 and another cold and snowy winter in Berlin.

Three months later she left Germany for good and started travelling full-time. So far, Sabrina has visited more than sixty countries and experienced different cultures. Her favourite country is the Philippines because of its climate and friendly people. She also likes Mexico as it has interesting history and marvellous beaches. Currently she is in Mongolia but she is planning to escape the winter for a warmer country.

Sabrina doesn't own many possessions. She keeps everything she has in a backpack. It is light and comfortable with enough space for all the necessary items, like a head torch, ear plugs or a scarf. She never takes a guidebook as she finds it useless. She prefers unusual places, areas that are not easy to visit where the pace of life is slow and people work hard. For her tasting the local street food, talking to complete strangers, even visiting their homes are the best ways to explore the country.

She has enough money to buy basic things and pay her insurance. She earns money by designing websites, teaching German and English or working as a tour guide. Three years ago she also started blogging for money. She likes writing about places she has visited and sharing photos with other people. Her blog is popular because she also offers practical tips on how to live and travel full-time. Now she has about 1000 visitors a day and the number is still growing.

She can't imagine living her old life again – going to an office and working for somebody else. She does what she loves.
